

Certificate

MAC (Mandatory Access Control)

A digital representation of information that identifies you and is issued by Cas, which are often a trusted third party (TTP).

Access to an object is restricted based on the sensitivity of the object (defined by the label that is assigned), and granted through authorization (Clearance) to access that level of data.